Glynn County names Fire Chief

GLYNN COUNTY, Ga. - The Glynn County Board of Commissioners would like to announce that Randolph "Randy" Jordan has been named Fire Chief. As Fire Chief, Jordan will direct all programs, operations, and activities of the Fire Department.

Since 2000, Jordan has served as the Assistant Fire Chief for the City of Fort Myers Fire Department in Florida. Prior to that, he served as a Lieutenant and Medical Officer with the Fort Myers Beach Fire Control District. Jordan holds a Master's degree in Leadership with an emphasis in Disaster Preparedness and Executive Fire Leadership and a Bachelor's degree in Fire Safety and Engineering. He has also earned the National Fire Academy's Executive Fire Officer Certificate and the Chief Fire Officer designation from the Center for Public Safety Excellence.

"We are pleased to welcome Randy Jordan to Glynn County. He has an extensive background in fire and emergency medical services. I know that Mr. Jordan will serve our Fire Department and community well, and we look forward to him joining the County's leadership team," Alan Ours, County Manager.

Jordan will begin his employment with Glynn County on February 1, 2016.
