Recreation Department employees awarded

GLYNN COUNTY, Ga. – Employees of the Glynn County Recreation and Parks Department were awarded at the District 2 Georgia Recreation and Parks Association (GRPA) Annual Awards Banquet held in Waycross, Ga. on August 12, 2015. The Glynn County Recreation Department took home three of the eight awards presented at the District 2 banquet.

Wesley Davis, Director of the Glynn County Recreation and Parks Department, received the James Colley Award that recognizes a professional who has made outstanding and lasting contributions to leisure services. This is the highest honor bestowed on a district professional.

Daniel Smith, Maintenance Worker with Ball Fields and Ground Maintenance, received the Mickey Katkaveck Award honoring excellence in Park Maintenance.

Steve Mellinger, Program Manager and District 2 GRPA Commissioner, received the James Edo "Sonny" Miller Award honoring excellence in Athletic Programming.
