Draft Flood Maps Available

GLYNN COUNTY, Ga.- The Glynn County Department of Community Development would like to notify the public that draft versions of the flood plain maps being developed by the Georgia Department of Natural Resources through the Georgia Flood M.A.P. (Mapping Assessing Planning) Program are available to view online on the Glynn County website: www.glynncounty.org or you can link directly to the site at <http://glynncounty.org/index.aspx?NID=1775>

Paper copies of the maps may be viewed by appointment in the Community Development Office on the 2nd floor of the W. Harold Pate Building located at 1725 Reynolds St., Brunswick. Contact Janet Loving at 912-554-7430 for an appointment.

These maps are drafts from which the preliminary flood plain maps will be created. The preliminary maps will be released in October of 2015 with a 90-day appeal period in the spring of 2016.
