Glynn County names Kathryn Downs as Management Analyst/PCO

Brunswick, GA – December 2, 2014 – The Glynn County Board of Commissioners announced that Kathryn Downs has been named Management Analyst/Public Communications Officer. Downs will provide professional and analytical support to the County Administrator in addition to preparing informational reports and news releases for dissemination to the public and media.

Downs comes to Glynn County from U.S. Senator Saxby Chambliss' office where she worked as a Regional Representative. She was employed by the Senator's office for nearly eight years and represented Senator Chambliss in 25 counties in coastal Georgia, including Glynn County. Prior to that, she worked as a Planner for the Coastal Regional Commission.

"We are excited to have Kathryn join our team. Her prior experience in both the Senator's office and the Regional Commission are well suited for her duties here at Glynn County. She has a wealth of experience that will greatly benefit Glynn County as we continue to keep the public informed of county issues and as we work to implement the goals of the Board of Commissioners. She is a true professional and is well respected", Alan Ours, County Administrator.

Downs is a graduate of the University of Georgia having earned both a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Political Science and a Master's Degree in Public Administration. She has resided in Glynn County for nearly 30 years and is a graduate of Glynn Academy High School in Brunswick, GA. Downs and her husband Jared live on St. Simons Island with their dog Lilly.
