Red Cross Shelter Opens

GLYNN COUNTY, Ga.- The Red Cross has opened a shelter in Brunswick during Tropical Storm Ian. This shelter is located at 2900 Albany Street or the Old Risley Annex. Red Cross will be staffing this shelter during the storm as needed. Staff arrived Wednesday evening to set up and evaluate needs and resources.

Officials ask for citizens to seek this shelter if they are in need of safer shelter or have a compromised living situation during the storm. It will be a first come first serve basis and will not be available following the storms departure from our area.
